

October 28th, 2009, Boys And Girls Stater Dinner

TEMPLETON, CALIFORNIA
POST 220 COMMANDER
LAWRENCE "LARRY" MORA

"WELCOME"

STATERS put in practice their educational pursuits in Civic Government disciplines in a Real World setting at our State's Capital. Post 220 is a proud sponsor of the AMERICAN LEGION STATER PROGRAM

(Click on any Photo for enlargement(s) and options)

Chaplain Claborne Bengé Opens The Evening With The Invocation.

The Meeting Is Paused For Dinner Stater Guests First, Of Course.

Guests And All Enjoy Another Of Al Braly's Great Chicken Dinners.

Mike Bedford Surprises Us With A Plaque For Our R2R Support.

Before The Agenda Cecil Gambel With His 60 Year Award And Pin.

And Followed By Robert Miller With His 55 Year Award And Pin.

Boys Stater Kenneth Block From Atascadero High School

Boys Stater Ron Elliot From Templeton High School

Post 220 Judge Advocate Martin McAulay and Auxiliary President Shirley Martin Credit and Explain The Girls Stater Selection Process. No less than 27 interviews were conducted in the selection process from High Schools in Templeton, Atascadero and Paso Robles; as well as helping with the selection in High Schools of Morro Bay and San Luis Obispo.

*Girls Stater Ashley Keezer
From Atascadero High School*

*Girls Stater Margaret Schmidt
From Templeton High School*

The Stater Group, We missed Carlee Sanderson of Paso Robles High.

*Auxiliary Member Eileen McAulay
Expresses Cooperative Delight.*

*Did She Mean With This Riff Raff?
Photo © SEP, Nanette Fisher.*

Parks and Rec are looking into Legal Action against Cecil Gambel for Gross Depletion of their Hot Dogs. An irate Mother is pursuing Pirate Barry for Scaring Her Little Daughter. Mary Pisenti narrowly escaped angry parents after deciding the Halloween costume winner. Thankfully Sergeant-At-Arms Bob Pisenti was there to maintain order.

All kidding aside, Halloween Day, October 24, was a great afternoon.

Aux Treasurer Mary Pisenti and Assistant Madison Silva

Introduce The 50-50 Drawing As Joe Watje Is Its First Claimant.

Merle Price Takes The USO Bag With The Local Wine.

Guest Jill Kreezer Takes Home The VFW 2814 donated Cook Book.

Drawing proceeds are donated to Veteran Service organizations.

Fran Weber, also of the Ladies Auxiliary of Atascadero VFW Post 2814, presents and promotes their "OUR FAVORITE RECIPES" Cookbook, organized with a patriotic motif.

The Cookbook has been in the works for several months and is planned to be distributed on November 1st. It contains 389 recipes from members, family and friends from as far away as Texas, Virginia and New York.

At $10 ($3 mailing) a bargain. All proceeds go to Veterans' projects. Contact Fran at (805) 466-9303 or Email at francie@juno.com.

5½ x 8½ Trim Size, Punch-and-Comb Bound, 200 Pages; A GREAT JOB!

[\[PREVIOUS\]](#)

[\[ALBUM CONTENTS\]](#)

[\[LEGION HOMEPAGE\]](#)

[\[NEXT PICS\]](#)